

HAWAIIAN HOLONUA

PROGRESS.
The Life of the Land is Established in Righteousness.

HONOLULU, JULY 27, 1894.

A Conundrum.

How much was Bush paid for the publication of his "English" article yesterday? Perhaps the Star will answer.

WHO IS WRONG?

The Advertiser appeared clothed in virtuous indignation, a few days ago against the HOLONUA, alleging that we had falsified figures relating to the expenses of placing the loan authorized under the law of 1893.

Of course, the Advertiser is infallible, and it is with a great deal of pleasure that we note the alleged fact, that $263,000 worth of bonds have been sold since the revolution, and that the expenses of "placing it" only amounted to $4,076. "Figures always lie." So says the "Tiser" and it illustrates the theory very forcibly. If the Advertiser figures are correct, we are wrong, and Mr. Damon is the guilty party. In the financial statement presented to the Councils by Minister Samuel Damon, we find that the expenses of "placing the loan of 1893" amount to $10,860. The bonds sold amount to less than $100,000. Will the Advertiser kindly explain how and when the figures in question were reduced?

We have the greatest respect for our esteemed morning contemporary. The editor of that sheet has more money, more education and more brains than the writer of the HOLONUA "leaflet" possesses. Nevertheless, we think that it is due to justice and to truth to give the readers of Mr. Dole's official organ plain and correct figures and not pretend to reduce expenses "of placing loan" from Mr. Damon's $10,860 to Mr. Castle's $4,076.

We may at the same time state that the accusation of our esteemed contemporary against us, that we ever argued against the building of roads and the developing of industries is highly incorrect and preposterous.

We have opposed as we ever shall do the attempt of the Advertiser and its clique to use false pretenses as an inducement to foreigners to settle here. When the Advertiser gets ready to answer the pertinent question which we have asked time and time again, we shall join its theories and sentiments. How are the settlers to live, and where is the market for their produce?

The government may build roads, and it may do all in its power to induce "white men" to come here. But it should be done over and above board, and without any sinister or egotistical motive. The Advertiser with all its clever writers from Thurston, on Guava jelly, to Girvin on Poha jam, have never yet made one single practical suggestion to a small farmer in this country.

A labor commission has been or will be called according to the programme laid out by the "Tiser," it will be a junketing and banquetting affair. A number of men are to be appointed by the government, that means are to travel at the expense of the government and to "visit" the different plantations where they will be entertained at the expense of the stockholders by the managers and agents. A report will then be made. It will then be printed in the Advertiser, at the expense of the government, and it will be placed on file—and remain in a pigeon hole for good and forever. How settlers to get on, and what the prospects are to make this country a "white man's country" will not be decided by the commission. The Advertiser will continue publishing its figures, and as our genial brother of the pen says "figures will lie."

HIS POLICY.

Ex-Ambassador Bush Talks.

Our policy has been trumpeted in one steady note since January 14, 1893, from press, pulpit and stump, viz: To oppose all thieves and drunkards, and to endeavor to guide the Hawaiian people to await President Cleveland's final action in regard to the overthrow of the constitutional government of Hawaii, and the deposition of Queen Liliuokalani, which the President of United States acknowledges was done by the forces of that government, and let us add, and through the treachery and cowardice of the Queen's Cabinet and Marshal, and the general imbecility of the drunks that were at the back of them.

Anybody who can understand the above language of poor Bush will realize, how far down the political ladder the poor devil has gone. He simply affirms our late assertions and he advises the Hawaiians to wait and wait—until Cleveland's final action is known.

The man knows as well as we do that the waiting game is up. He is bribed and bought to bamboozle the Hawaiians, and thereby make them hold aloof from the true friends of this small country. He is welcome to do so.

If sensible Hawaiians in this community will listen to him, and forfeit their political chances for the next six years let them do so—and when the day comes when they call Bush to task for his fraudulent statements, they will find him building churches on money supplied by Baldwin, Dillingham and other missionaries. The man is a gigantic fraud. We do not propose to sacrifice our space or our time to show what he is, but we do believe that Hawaiians have sense enough to take their choice, between the men who without selfish motives stay with them and the men who, represented by Bush, run the shebang even if it is "per guardian."

FALSE AGAIN.

The Advertiser seems to be possessed with an idea that it can throw dust into the eyes of the community by making some vague, and incomprehensible statements about occurrences and by indulging in some facetious remarks about the HOLONUA and its opponents.

We showed our readers yesterday, how useless it is to accept the present conditions and, to register under the Dole combination, now maskading under the name of the "Hawaiian Republic." The reason that forced us to take such a stand was the refusal of the government to allow James Quinn to register as a voter. Mr. Quinn is neither a "protégé" of our establishment or a political affiliation. But we believe that he is entitled to receive the necessary acknowledgements which will entitle him to vote in this country.

The Advertiser states that Mr. Quinn was refused a certificate, because he did not satisfy the requirements of Section 2, Article 17, of the constitution.

Mr. Quinn voted for a delegate to the convention. He qualified at that time and he moreover became a member of the American League. It was generally supposed that such qualifications would have been enough to make a man competent to have a vote under the special privileges of the "Republic." Mr. King, the ex-captain of one of Wilder's steamers and at present the judge of a tax-payers right to vote holds differently, and he barred Mr. Quinn. The government organ justifies the refusal to register Quinn by referring to Article 17, Section 2. We publish that section to show the falsehood and imbecility of our esteemed contemporary.

"Section 2. Any person not a Hawaiian citizen, who took active part or otherwise rendered substantial service in the formation of, and has since supported the Provisional Government of Hawaii, who shall within six months from the promulgation of this constitution procure from the Minister of the Interior a certificate of such service, as herein set forth; and also shall take an oath to support the constitution and the laws of the Republic so long as he shall remain domiciled in the Republic, shall be entitled to all the privileges of citizenship without thereby prejudicing his native citizenship or allegiance."

As Mr. Quinn took the necessary oath to support the p. g. and voted for the delegates to the convention and is a member in good standing of the American League, the authority of which keeps Mr. Dole in office, according to his own statement, we would like to know how Mr. King, formerly of the Kinan and latterly of the Interior Department can hold that the provisions of Article 17 Section 2, have not been accomplished in the case of Quinn. Will the "Tiser" explain?

STRIKES IN AMERICA.

But Matters Will Be Soon Smoothed Over in These Islands.

The strikes in the United States have raised havoc with everything. The revolution in Hawaii did the same thing, but the personally conducted excursion to the Volcano which Frank L. Hoogs is operating will tend to greatly smooth matters over. The plan has caused considerable favorable comment, and will undoubtedly be a success in every way, as the volcano is more active than it will be for some months to come. Added to this great feature, Mr. Hoogs offers special inducements for this trip only, that will add greatly to the passenger list. The excursion starts a week from today.

Stop It.

The Advertiser is becoming more and more objectionable to the members of the bar and to the judges. This morning two attorneys got on their feet in the District Court and raised objections against the tone of the Advertiser.

Mr. Chas. Creighton claimed that the report in the official organ in re Tong Lee was "injurious to his client and Mr. Paul Neumann complained of the report of the White—assault and battery case. Judge Robertson took both objections under advisement and it is to be hoped that the injudicious comments of the government organs will finally be shut up.

Hawaiian Hardware Comp'y.

July 24, 1894.

In "Puddenhead Wilson's Philosophy" Mark Twain says: "Put all of your eggs in one basket—and watch that basket." Eggs are not the only things to which this applies, we can make it fit stoves and change eggs into dollars and make it read—Invest your coin in a Pansy Stove—and the stove will watch itself. We have been watching these stoves for the past five years, and find them the best iron stove sold in this market for the money. Where else than at our store can you get a stove that will do everything that a $50 stove will do and get it for $15? Echo answers, "the place isn't built." We have sold hundreds of these stoves in Honolulu, and never had a complaint. Two weeks ago, we sold one to a gentleman on Hawaii, and yesterday he ordered another for a friend. The stove sells itself through its fuel saving qualities, and because, it is a good baker. You can get other styles of stoves if you are not particular as to the quantity of fuel you burn or how your food is cooked. There's no dyspepsia in meals prepared on a PANSY.

We received last week a lot of wire clothes-lines that hold washed clothes, without using pins. It is a sort of double wire arrangement and the pieces are held in between; the harder the wind blows the tighter the pieces are held to the line. There is absolutely no danger of the clothing being torn as there is nothing sharp about the line. While the cost is a trifle greater than rope, this new style will last so much longer that it is economical to buy the pinless line.

The CLAUSSE is one of the new fangled saw-edge knives that cuts warm bread without leaving it heavy and iced cake without making crumbs. There are two or three different makes of these knives, all on the same principle and each one pronounced the best on earth by the manufacturers. We selected the Clausse, which we believe as a disinterested spectator to be better than its neighbors. You never had anything in your life that give as much satisfaction for a dollar. If you were buying the other sort you would get only one.

The favorite sewing machine in any community is the one that does the most for the least money and which runs the easiest. In the "Wertheim" you have a machine that sews three distinct stitches—The Lock, Chain and Embroidery and runs easier than any other machine, and you pay twenty dollars less for it. Economy stands boldly every side when you buy a Wertheim. In tucking the chain stitch is preferable, but in other kinds of work, the lock stitch is the best. If you buy a machine that sews the lock, unless it is a Wertheim, it won't sew a chain stitch. There's no particular saving in buying a machine with but one stitch, the Wertheim does three and saves you lots of trouble and work.

We've just unpacked six cases of stand lamps that were built for hard times. They have metal bases and are decorated so as to make a very neat appearance in a room. We don't think you can get as good a lamp anywhere else for the money, try as hard as you please.

Our stock of table cutlery, spoons and forks is as large as you will find in any store in San Francisco, and our prices compare favorably with those in New York.
